

CAI: America's Advocate for Responsible Communities

“Community Associations Institute is a national organization dedicated to fostering vibrant, responsive, competent community associations. Founded in 1973, CAI provides education and resources to association-governed communities. Its members include community association volunteer leaders, professional managers, community management firms and companies that provide products and services to community associations.

Working closely with more than 50 states, regional and local chapters nationwide, CAI conducts research and serves as a clearinghouse for the latest information in community association management and governance. CAI serves its members with books, seminars and workshops, research, continuing education and publications, including Common Ground magazine and specialized newsletters on community association management governance and law.”
